which would have to be sold in a commercially reasonable manner. The secured party could not operate the station because the license is in the name of the corporation and only the corporation can operate under that license.

In addition, it would seem to be poor timing in this matter inasmuch as the greatest revenues for the station will be generated during the month of December and I would think the corporation would be in the position of making some substantial payments on the debts in January when those cash collections should flow in.

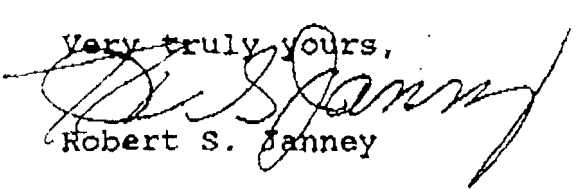

I realize now, based on your letter, that there is a total delinquency of $12,500 on the leased premises and a delinquency in the note payments of $8,000.

It is my understanding that SlocuMedia, Inc. would resist the asserted right to reenter the premises and of course this would result in litigation at this point should that occur.

I suggest that all parties make arrangements to have a conference to discuss the matter to see what can be worked out in a face to face meeting and I hope that your client might be available to do that. I would also hope that my client, Earl Judy, would be available during this month for a meeting although he is out of town this week and I cannot contact him as of drafting this letter to arrange for a proposed date.

I look forward to hearing from you in response to this letter.

Very truly yours,

Robert S. Janney

Dear Mr. Slocum:

I feel it is important to place in writing the following:

- 1) Our verbal alternative offers of 12/13, 12/14, & 12/18 to allow you to continue occupying the 1304 Ivy Street premises still stand. As you know, those offers addressed two different possibilities: (1) Some mechanism to have you pledge your SlocuMedia Stock; or (2) Set a reasonable deadline (30 - 60 days) to have the planned new Ownership Group complete lease and note negotiations with us. If you have any interest in pursuing such areas, please contact me by December 31, 1990.
2. As I have offered during all of our conversations (December 14 & 18), you need only to call myself (703 982-8844) or John Matherly (703 943-7147) to be granted access to the building at 1304 Ivy Street, Waynesboro.
- 3) Please note that your surprise actions to cut off the electric power (on December 18, 1990) without notice to us, did cause us unnecessary problems and expense.

Sincerely,

Leon P. Harris

Dear Scott:

Due to the damage that was done to the operation of WZKT Radio resulting from the action of Leon Harris and Company December 14, 1990, we will not be interested in pursuing the purchase of the assets of WZKT. However, if Mr. Harris would be interested in compensating Slocumedia, Inc. for damages and loss of billing, and further, provide six months free rent at the present transmitter-studio location, we would agree to re-open negotiations to purchase these assets.

Since I personally own 49% of Slocumedia, Inc., licensee of WZKT, we will, however, consider the possibility of purchasing the remaining 51% of that corporation and operating the license at a new transmitter site. We are presently studying that possibility. Further, we are considering the possibility of recovering damages caused to me as a stockholder of Slocumedia resulting from the December 14th action by Harris.

Very truly yours,

Earl Judy, Jr.

Re: Application for assignment of License of WZKT, Waynesboro, VA, dated April 4, 1991

Dear Ms. Searcy:

This letter is in response to the correspondence of Leon P. Harris, partner in Waynesboro Broadcasting Limited Partnership, dated May 3, 1991.

SlocuMedia, Inc. is the authorized and legal holder of the license of radio broadcast station WZKT, Waynesboro, VA, and has requested the consent of the Federal Communications Commission to transfer this license to Tschudy Communications Corporation (Application dated April 4, 1991; amended April 22, 1991).

SlocuMedia, Inc. is presently a shell corporation without any physical assets and only holds a valid FCC license for standard broadcast station WZKT, Waynesboro, VA. As per the Federal Communications Commission's request, the applicant to assign this license was required to amend the application to specifically state that no monetary consideration of any nature or kind be paid by the assignee to the assignor in consideration for the assignment of the license of station WZKT (See Addendum to the agreement to assignment dated April 22, 1991).

SlocuMedia, Inc. and Earl Judy, Jr. attempted to resolve the existing problems with the landlord and note holders of the assets of SlocuMedia, Inc. in December 1990. Due to the fact that Mr. Leon P. Harris refused to cooperate and extend the time period for 30 days, Mr. Harris came to the studios, locked the doors and allowed no one to enter the property. Thus, the station was unable to continue operating and has been dark since that date; December 17, 1990.

SUBJECT: "Application for Consent to Assignment of Broadcast Station
Construction Permit or License" - Dated April 4, 1991
Assignor: SlocuMedia, Inc.
Assignee: Tschudy Communications Corporation
Call Letters: WZKT AM
Location: Waynesboro, VA.

Dear Ms. Searcy:

In recent editions of the WAYNESBORO NEWS VIRGINIA newspaper I was surprised to see the Legal Notice (copy attached) announcing the above referenced application.

I am writing on behalf of myself, Nancy M. Bowman and Kenneth D. Bowman. We are partners in the following:

1. Waynesboro Broadcasting Limited Partnership (WBLP), a partnership that sold to SlocuMedia, Inc. on August 10, 1989 the Assets and Contracts used in connection with the operation of a Radio Station known as WZKT-AM, Waynesboro, Virginia. That arrangement subsequently approved by the FCC, included a Secured Note from the Partnership on all the equipment (including transmitter and studio equipment) used in operating WZKT-AM. SlocuMedia, Inc. was notified in writing in November 1990 of overdue installment payments. WZKT-AM stopped operations in December 1990. WBLP filed for Judgement in Circuit Court for the City of Waynesboro on February 15, 1991.
2. Kenneth D. Bowman, Nancy M. Bowman and Leon P. Harris Partnership, is a Partnership that owns the building, real estate and transmitter tower used in connection with the operation of Radio Station WZKT-AM. We entered into a Lease arrangement with SlocuMedia, Inc. on December 1, 1989 for the above described property. SlocuMedia, Inc. was notified in writing in November 1990 of overdue Lease payments. WZKT-AM stopped operations in December 1990. The above Partnership filed for Judgement in Circuit Court for the City of Waynesboro on February 15, 1991.

On behalf of these Partners who own the property, offices, studios and tower antenna and who now own the transmitter, studio equipment and all office equipment (due to default on Secured Note) of AM Radio Station WZKT (1490), I wish to raise serious question about the above subject Application for Assignment.

For clarification purposes, the stockholders are as follows:

SlocuMedia: Scott Slocum 51%
 Earl Judy, Jr. 49%

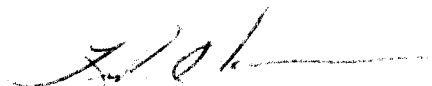

Tschudy Communications Corporation:
 Earl Judy, Jr.
 Robert S. Janney
 Joyce Jenkins

We have made numerous attempts to communicate with Mr. Slocum and Mr. Judy to find workable solutions to the property rental and Secured Note default problems. Those attempts have been met with almost total silence and have resulted in no progress. In desperation, we filed for judgement against SlocuMedia, Inc. on February 15, 1991 in Circuit Court for the City of Waynesboro.

We received notice last week from the U. S. Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of Virginia (copy attached) that Scott Slocum did on April 26, 1991 file for Bankruptcy.

Absent resolution of the above mentioned Litigation involving transmitter, tower, studios and real estate, we oppose the transfer of a Bare License and question how soon or if broadcast will resume. We also find great objection in a "No Monetary Consideration" Agreement to Assignment.

Sincerely,

Leon P. Harris
